ANNUAL LICENSING COURT. AN INTERESTING MEETING.

The annual Sessions of H. M. Justices of the Peace was held to-day in the Justice's Room, at the Magistracy. Mr H. E. Wodehouse, Police Magistrate, presided, and the Justices present were :- Messra N. J. Ede, C. S. Sharp, Findley Smith, Ladds, G. T. B. Arthur, and Mr. F. H. May, Captain Youas. Superintendent of Police.

Mr. Wodehouse intimated that there were certain applications which he thought could be granted, as there were no Police objections.

CRUSADE AGAINST CRUDE WHISKY. Mr. Sharp Bofore we proceed further, I am given to understand that during the past year some of the holders of licences have been had up and convicted for solling adultorated liquor. I do not know whether the Ordinances now in force give the necessary power to those whose business it is to aupervise this thing, but if they do not I think representations to the Government on this subject would not be amiss. This is only what I have been told outside.

Mr Wodehouse-I do not know that we can do anything with what you mention. It is a case that might properly come to the notice of the Government. Unless there is something against any particular house in selling such kind of liquors you mention. I do not know that we can deal with it to-day. I think it is a very proper subject for the Justices to take up if they wish to, and if it is the case I think what you say is certainly very proper.

Mr Veitch Is this the question of the quality of liquor? Don't you remember that was brought up about live years ago, and I fancy it was suggested that a Committee of the Justices should go round and test it. (Laughter.)

Mr Ede-I hight montion that there is a law by which adulterated liquors can soized. It comes under another point altogether. The Sanitary Board does that. Mr Wodehouse read the definition of adulterated liquor in the Spirit Licences

Canton, November 10: Sir. - You have rendered good service to the cause of Religious Liberty in this empire by the publication of the memorandum of the Tsung Li Yamen on Christian Missions in China. HONGKONG v. SHANGHAI. ANOTHER INTERESTING DAY'S CRICKET. It is now more than five years since Hongkong and Shanghai have placed rival clevens on the cricket field. In the ever memorable year of 1892, two matches were played, one at Hongkong where the local team was successful by an innings and 132 hai won by 112 and 202 runs to 78 and 79. Of the Shanghai team which visited Hongkong in the spring of 1892 only two men are playing to-day-J. Mann and T. Wallace. Mr E. P. Wickham, who is umpiring for Shanghai, was an active member of the side on the last occasion. The only member of the Hongkong team now in the enough, is here as adviser of the Straits team, himself now President of the Singapore C.C. He proved himself a suseful marker for the Straits, and the pressmen spectators from standing in front of the press hox. Capt. Dunn and Jeffkins were Coxon are in England; Dr Lowson, lately distinguishing himself in the plague centres of India, is now enjoying his holiday in Scotland; Darby and E. W. Maitland are in Shanghai, keeping up their form when business cares permit : Taylor, Dumbleton, and de Robeck by the exigencies of th .up and down the face of the earth. Hongkong's score in 1892 of 429 is, we believe, unparalleled in Interport cricket, although the Straits-team-came within a few made 107, and the only member of the Hongkong team who failed to get into double figures was E. J. Coxon, whose Hastings at the City Hall bowling proved too much for the visitors. as a high mark for Hongkong cricketers to

The weather was fine, clear and sunny in the forenoon, warm and light. A pitch more to the south of the ground was selected, away from the dangerous pitch of the previous day, and the fast Shanghai bowling did not kick so dangerously as it did when the Straits men were playing. Captain Farbridge was lucky enough to win the toss; and his men did very well indeed. They faced the and Lanning, Mann, Tyack and Farbridge played excellent and intersting cricker. INTERPORT RIFLE MATCH. SINGAPORE WINS WITH THE RECORD SCORE. The Hongkong team fired in the Inter- Hongkong? port Rifle Match at the Association Range at Kowloon this afternoon. Owing to the disorganised state of the Hongkong Rifle Association, it was feared a few weeks ago | Hongkong 635; that so far as Hongkong was concorned there would be no match this year; but Capt. A. At 200 yards, Hongkong scored 308 as compared with 318 last, year, but at 600 yards, in spite of Sergt. The 5 points were dropped at the last range, where McPhail, with the last shot of the team -- fired in an uncertain light--failed to find the target, and finished with the unusually small score for him, of 23.

In mechanics the three chief consideralone are space, force and time, and if our a at the cost of the others. Thus, if a achine is to raise a greater weight in the ame time it must do so through a less nace, and if the distance be greater either the force of time must be increased so perdingly. So in chess time is an acquisi-Han only to be geined by the expanditure of force, which is numerical or position.

Time in chees means the right to move. and may be an advantage or a disadvantage exactly as an extra piece or pawn may lose the game or may win it. For instance a king may be mated by king and knight if his motion be hampered by a pawn of his own colour. Where force and position are approximately equal the possession of time ing may open as follows.
